Baking & Pastry Arts

Where Your Next Chapter Begins...

Program Description

Few careers are as “sweet” as those of a pastry chef, and everyone enjoys a wonderful dessert at the end of any meal. If you are creative and detail-oriented, McFatter’s Baking and Pastry Arts program may be for you. Learn how to create breads, pastries and desserts that look as beautiful as they taste! In addition to learning specific food preparation techniques, learn how to measure correctly, mix and blend and make your creations visually appealing - all necessary skills for the pastry chef. Take the first step toward receiving credit for that meal-ending dessert that wows the crowd!

Baking and Pastry Arts is a hybrid class. Hands-on activities are completed in our state of the art, full production commercial kitchens (labs) on campus in Building 6. Academic activities and sanitation (ServSafe) are a blend of lectures, videos, demonstrations and online curriculum.
